A Brief Biography of the Author

Doreen Potter Hanna, daughter of William W. and Margaret (Richardson) Potter, was born in 1899 in Hastings, Michigan. She graduated from the University of Michigan in 1920, worked in the University Museum, taught zoology in Detroit City College (later to become Wayne State University), and did graduate work at Harvard. In 1925 she was married in Detroit to Jay Eaton Hanna; their married life was spent in Detroit and Birmingham, Michigan, where their four children grew up. In 1958 she moved to Vermont, and became assistant archivist in the library of Dartmouth College, Hanover, New Hampshire. Upon her retirement she moved to Skowhegan, Maine, where she died in 1982.

Doreen Potter Hanna's own family tree was the first subject of her genealogical research, which she began in the 1940's. She published A Potter-Richardson Memorial in 1957, after consulting historical collections, corresponding with many other descendants, and investigating, upon numerous occasions, grave sites and other sources of direct evidence. She carried out much of her research for this book, as for her later ones, in New England, whence her forefathers had come to Michigan and which she knew well.

While investigating the Richardson line, Doreen Potter Hanna had collected a body of information on her first-generation ancestor Edward Kibbe of Boston and his descendants, and later undertook to apply her skills and thoroughness to an expanded study of this topic. In 1967 she published the first version of Kibbe Genealogical Notes: On Some Descendants of Edward Kibbe and his Wife Mary (Partridge) Kibbe. The revised and enlarged edition of this book, published in 1972, has become a much-consulted reference for the Kibbe and related family lines.

In addition to her work on the Potter, Richardson, and Kibbe families, Doreen Potter Hanna investigated a number of other families related in one way or another to her own, among them the Botsford, Hamilton, Hanna, Kerr, Meneely, and Townsend lines. She published the results of her work in limited editions kept by family members. To make some of her works more available to other researchers, she donated copies to appropriate libraries. Her publications are now out of print, though some are available in genealogical libraries such as those of the New England Historic Genealogical Society and the Connecticut Historical Society. Among those held in libraries, in addition to the two editions of her Kibbe work, is her book Some Descendants of Amos Richardson of Boston and Stonington, published in 1971.

Kibbe Coat-of-Arms

Let us now praise famous men and our fathers that begat us. . . .

There be of them, that have left a name behind them, that their praises might be reported.

And some there be, which have no memorial; who are perished, as though they had never been; and are become as though they had never been born; and their children after them.

But these were merciful men, whose righteousness hath not been forgotten.

With their seed shall continually remain a good inheritance, and their children are within the covenant.

Their seed standeth fast, and their children for their sakes.

Their seed shall remain for ever, and their glory shall not be blotted out.

Their bodies are buried in peace; but their name liveth for evermore.

OF EDWARD KEBBE
AGED 97 YEARS
DIED NOVEMBER
1 1694

In the Old Burying Ground, Church Street,
Wakefield, Massachusetts;
originally a part of "Old Redding."

Of the descendants of Edward<sup>1</sup> and Mary (Partridge) Kibbe, only the lineages of the male lines have been carried forward, those individuals bearing the Kibbe surname. Descendants through the female lines may be found in other genealogies under the surname of the daughter's husbands.

This genealogical data on the descendants of Edward Kibbe<sup>1</sup> is arranged in three sections; that concerned with descendants of his son, James, appearing first. This is followed by descendants of his second son, Elisha; and third, are given the descendants of Joshua, his youngest son.

It will be noted that the male line of James Kibbe<sup>2</sup> became extinct after the third generation, whereas that of Elisha Kibbe<sup>2</sup> flourished and forms the bulk of this data. Descendants of Elisha are arranged in four groups corresponding to the order of the births of his four sons: John, 1668; Edward, 1670; James, 1675; and Isaac, 1683.

Throughout this outline of descendants of Edward Kibbe the surname has been spelled, KIBBE, although it may be used, and appear elsewhere in various spellings, such as Kibby, Kibbey, Kibbee, and Kibbie.

Acknowledgement is made gratefully to all those living descendants of Edward Kibbe who have contributed so generously of their time and researches in helping in this compilation of the family records. Without their aid and knowledge this family history could not have been written.

---- Doreen Potter Hanna, 1972

This reprint of Doreen Potter Hanna's Kibbe Genealogical Notes would not have been possible without the willingness of her children to share this material with the Kibbe research community. We gratefully acknowledge their generosity.

The following list describes the changes that were made to the 1972 edition:

- The title and copyright pages were updated (pages i and ii).
- "A Brief Biography of the Author" was added (page iii).
- A transcription of Edward Kibbe's gravestone was added and the image was replaced with a current photo (courtesy of Perry Callaway) (page vi).
- Changed "livings descendants" to "living descendants" in the last paragraph (page vii).
- A Table of Contents was added (page ix).
- In order to reduce the overall page count, the index was transcribed and re-keyed. Despite the reduction from 70 to 30 pages, the index should contain exactly the same information as the original.

The remaining pages are identical to the 1972 edition. This reprint includes the apparent page numbering error that exists in the 1972 edition. The numbering of the index skips from page 563 to 566 but it seems that no content is actually missing.

KIBBE

In the Old Burying Ground by the Congregational Church in Wakefield, Massachusetts, is an ancient stone bearing this inscription:

"Here lyes ye Body
of Edward Keebe
Aged 97 years
Died November
1 1694"

On the left of this grave is that of Hannah Kibbe, a daughter of Edward Kibbe<sup>1</sup>, who died April 28, 1695, aged 32 years. On his right is buried Mary Hodgman, wife of Thomas, who died November 10, 1735, aged 95. It is believed she was the eldest daughter of Edward. Beyond this grave is that of Mary Hay, wife of Peter. Marriage records of Reading or Redding, Massachusetts, of which this portion of Wakefield was once a part, show this Mary Hay to have been a daughter of James Kibbe<sup>2</sup>, and therefore a grand-daughter of Edward. Thus it appears that the Edward Kibbe buried at Wakefield is the Edward Kibbe who emigrated to the Boston area sometime around 1645, and set up a sawmill on the Muddy River in what is now Brookline, Massachusetts.

Source materials give the birth date of the emigrating ancestor as May 11, 1611, and his parents as Edward and Deborah (----) Kibbe of Exeter, England. There is an obvious discrepancy between the birth date and age at death as marked on the gravestone. Since we have no reason to doubt the parentage and birth record, this mistake may be attributed to the person marking the stone, or to the fact that the elderly tend to forget and add a few years to their age.

The wife of Edward Kibbe<sup>1</sup> is said to have been Mary Partridge or Partridge whom he married in England. By September, 1645, Boston records show that Mary was affiliated with the church there. Births, baptisms, and deaths of children born to this couple are given in Boston and Roxbury records. No death record has been found for Mary (Partridge) Kibbe. It is probable that Edward did not move to Reading to live near his children until after his wife had died.

That Edward Kibbe<sup>1</sup> was active in community affairs is indicated by some records of his service. In 1662 he was appointed Clerk of Market, a position created, probably, to give the Muddy River area representation in Boston markets. From 1666 to 1683 he served intermittently as Surveyor of Highways. Edward and his wife are listed in 1674 as contributors to the fund for the second meeting house in Roxbury, Massachusetts.

Descendants of James Kibbe<sup>2</sup>:

JAMES KIBBE<sup>2</sup>(Edward<sup>1</sup>), 1642-ca.1681/2, the oldest son of Edward<sup>1</sup> and Mary (Partridge) Kibbe, was born in 1642, perhaps in Boston, Massachusetts. He was baptized there September 30, 1645, when three and a half years old. As an adult he is recorded as living in Dorchester, and later in Cambridge, Concord, and Charlestown, Massachusetts. The children of his first marriage are recorded in Concord, and Hannah was the given name of his wife. Her surname is not known. His second marriage is recorded in Charlestown, Massachusetts, October 23, 1679, to Sarah (Stephenson) Lowden. She was the daughter of Andrew Stephenson, alias Stimpson, and the widow of John Lowden.

Wyman in "Charlestown Genealogies and Estates" says there was a Thomas Kibbe who lived seven years in the household of John Lowden. It is not known whether this was an apprenticed child, or whether this boy was related in some way.

James Kibbe appears on the tax rolls in 1681 in Charlestown, but it is his estate which is taxed in 1688. His widow, Sarah, died in Charlestown, June 29, 1720. Her tombstone bears this inscription: "Here Lyes buried ye Body of Mrs. Sarah Kibbey Aged 80 years who dec'd June the 29 1720".

1. Mary, 1668-1693/4, m. 1685, Peter Hay of Stoneham

JAMES KIBBE<sup>3</sup>(James<sup>2</sup>,Edward<sup>1</sup>), 1674-1731/2, the only recorded son of James Kibbe<sup>2</sup> is said to have been born in Concord, Massachusetts, February 8, 1674. It is probable that he lived in Reading and Sherborn, Massachusetts, as did his older sisters. No record has been found of his marriage, but it is, probably, his wife, Elizabeth, whose child was born in Sherborn in 1713, and died with the mother in 1715.

Since James Kibbe<sup>3</sup> was a brother of Anna (Kibbe) Fitch, he must be the insane uncle for whom her son, Zachariah, was appointed guardian. This James Kibbe is said to have owned land in Lunenburg, Massachusetts. His death is given in Reading records, February 17, 1731/2.

There were, apparently, no male descendants to continue this line.

Descendants of Elisha Kibbe<sup>2</sup>:

ELISHA KIBBE<sup>2</sup>(Edward<sup>1</sup>), 1644-1735, the second son of Edward<sup>1</sup> and Mary (Partridge) Kibbe, was born about November 20, 1644, since at his baptism in Boston, Massachusetts, September 30, 1645, he was said to be ten months and ten days old. He became a joiner by trade, and when nineteen years of age removed to Salem, Massachusetts. Here he was married October 12, 1667, to Rachel Cooke<sup>2</sup>, 1645-1740, daughter of Henry<sup>1</sup> and Judith (Birdsall) Cooke of Salem. In 1680/2 he removed his family to Enfield, Connecticut, where they were among the earliest settlers. Elisha was active in town affairs, holding various public offices including that of Selectman and Constable. He died in Enfield, April 3, 1735, and his widow died there, September 10, 1740.

1. John, 1668-1755, m. 1. 1695, Mary Brown<sup>3</sup>(James<sup>2</sup>,Thomas<sup>1</sup>)
2. 1698, Hannah Phelps<sup>3</sup>(Jacob<sup>2</sup>,George<sup>1</sup>)
2. Edward, 1670-1756, m. 1. 1692, Rebecca Hadlock
2. 1693, Dorothy Phelps<sup>3</sup>(Jacob<sup>2</sup>;George<sup>1</sup>)
3. Elisha, 1673-1688
4. James, 1675, m. 1703, Hannah Kelsey<sup>3</sup>(Stephen<sup>2</sup>,William<sup>1</sup>)
5. Mary, m. 1699, John Parker

Here he was married October 12, 1695, to Mary Brown<sup>5</sup>, daughter of James Brown<sup>2</sup>. She died at the birth of her daughter in May, 1696. On August 18, 1698, John Kibbe married Hannah Phelps<sup>3</sup>. She was born November 26, 1677, the daughter of Jacob<sup>2</sup> and Dorothy (Ingersoll) Phelps. John died in Enfield in 1755. - 4th Generation -

1. John, 1728-1730, recorded in Windham

- 5th Generation -

JOHN KIBBE<sup>5</sup>(John<sup>4</sup>,John<sup>3</sup>,Elisha<sup>2</sup>,Edward<sup>1</sup>), son of John<sup>4</sup> and Hannah (Lombard) Kibbe, was born November 1, 1739, in Enfield, Connecticut. He was married, first, March 24, 1762, to Mindwell (----) Rude, a widow of Stafford, Connecticut. No record has been found of her death, but John was married June 10, 1768, in the Putnam Congregational Church to Elizabeth Bruce. She was born September 25, 1735, the daughter of Benjamin and Abigail (Morse) Bruce of Putnam, Connecticut. There has been no record found of children born to John and Elizabeth, but it is believed they had a son, Moses, born in 1769, and that Elizabeth died when the child was very young, so that he was placed in a foster home in or near Simsbury, Connecticut. John, the father, went off to the war, and is recorded as serving from 1777 to 1779 in the Revolution, stationed at Warwick and Greenwich, Rhode Island. Descriptive rolls of 1779 give his age as 40; height, 6 feet; complexion, light.

That a Moses Kibbe was born in Connecticut in 1769 is confirmed by Ohio census records. Family tradition confirms his living in the Simsbury area as a child. Connecticut land records show that a Moses Kibbe of Simsbury purchased a farm in Barkhamsted in 1794. The Census of 1800 for Barkhamsted lists John Kibbe as head of the household living on the farm purchased by Moses, and in the same household are a man, his wife, and children ranging in number and age as those known to be in Moses' family. Where John Kibbe was between 1779 and 1800 is not known, nor when or where he died.

MOSES KIBBE<sup>6</sup> (John<sup>5</sup>, John<sup>4</sup>, John<sup>3</sup>, Elisha<sup>2</sup>, Edward<sup>1</sup>), the only known son of John<sup>5</sup> and Elizabeth (Bruce) Kibbe, was born in 1769, possibly in Windham, Connecticut, since his parent's marriage is recorded there. Moses was eight years old when his father went into service, and it is assumed that his mother was already dead. It is known that he was placed in a foster home, or apprenticed, and grew up in or near Simsbury, Connecticut. No record has been found of his marriage to Mary Case, circa 1792, but land records establish her identity as daughter of Andrew and Rhoda (Moses) Case of Barkhamsted. Moses was of Simsbury when he first purchased land in Barkhamsted in 1794. In 1800 this couple was living in Barkhamsted, and Moses' father was living with them. By 1810 Moses had moved to New York State, but not liking it there this family returned to their farm in Barkhamsted where they are listed in the 1820 census.

In 1828 Mary sold the property inherited from her father, and she with Moses moved to Ohio where they joined their sons who had removed there as early as 1820. Only their son, James, remained in Connecticut on the home farm in Barkhamsted. Moses and Mary did not buy land in Ohio. Until 1837 they lived with their son, Moses, and afterwards made their home with their daughter, Elizabeth, and her husband, James Tuttle. Here Moses died soon after the 1850 census. His widow, Mary, then lived with the older daughter, Mary, wife of Joseph Tuttle. She died February 14, 1861. Both Moses and Mary (Case) Kibbe are buried in the cemetery at Concord, Ohio.

MOSES KIBBE<sup>7</sup>(Moses<sup>6</sup>, John<sup>5</sup>, John<sup>4</sup>, John<sup>3</sup>, Elisha<sup>2</sup>, Edward<sup>1</sup>), the oldest son of Moses<sup>6</sup> and Mary (Case) Kibbe, was born May 22, 1793, in Simsbury, Connecticut, and removed to Barkhamsted with his parents in 1794. He was married October, 1816, in Canton, Connecticut, to Tamar Knight. She was born in Litchfield County, Connecticut, possibly the daughter of David and Welthy (Hayes) Knight. In 1819 Moses and Tamar removed to Ohio, settling in Geauga County where they lived until 1837. In that year they moved to Cessna Township in Hardin County, Ohio. Tamar died in Hardin County, June 3, 1856/7. After the death of his wife, Moses moved to Lima, Ohio, and died there at the home of his son, Harmon, December 2, 1877. He was buried in Huntersville, Hardin County. Of the thirteen children born to this couple only five lived to maturity, eight others including two sets of twins died in infancy.

JOHN KIBBE<sup>7</sup>(Moses<sup>6</sup>, John<sup>5</sup>, John<sup>4</sup>, John<sup>3</sup>, Elisha<sup>2</sup>, Edward<sup>1</sup>), son of Moses<sup>6</sup> and Mary (Case) Kibbe, was born December 5, 1799, in Barkhamsted, Connecticut. It is said that he and Sylvia Reed of Barkhamsted accompanied the Origin Adams family of Canton, Connecticut, in migrating to the "far west". Because the bans for their marriage had not been read as required, they waited until they had left their native township, and were married by a justice of the peace, one Amos Beecher, on June 21, 1820. In the summer of 1821, John and Sylvia settled in Ridgeville Township, Lorain County, Ohio. Here they joined the Methodist Church in 1826, and were living on their original homesite at the time of their deaths. John died August 30, 1881. Sylvia who was born April 4, 1802, died August 12, 1882. They are buried in the Fields Corners Cemetery, Ridgeville, Ohio.

1. Charles R., 1821, m. Urana R. or Lurany R. ----
2. Emeline R., 1823-1859, m. 1847, Alonzo Fauver

STEPHEN KIBBE<sup>7</sup>(Moses<sup>6</sup>, John<sup>5</sup>, John<sup>4</sup>, John<sup>3</sup>, Elisha<sup>2</sup>, Edward<sup>1</sup>), son of Moses<sup>6</sup> and Mary (Case) Kibbe, was born in Barkhamsted, Connecticut, in 1800. He was married, first, to Chloe Tullar of Barkhamsted, December 13/23, 1822. After his wife died in Barkhamsted, March 25, 1824, Stephen migrated to Ohio. His second marriage, November 24, 1825, to Caroline A. Baldwin of Concord, Ohio, is listed in Ohio Marriages for Geauga and Lake Counties. In the Census of 1830, Stephen Kibbe is listed in Thompson Township, Geauga County, with a wife and two female children. Only the younger of these children is believed to have been his. No further data has been found.

Children of Stephen Kibbe<sup>7</sup> and Caroline A. (Baldwin) Kibbe:
1. Ursula, 1826-1894, m. Valorus Warren (Ebenezer)
